

WORKSHOP 4

Milling Lumber

Date/Time: Saturday, Xtember tbd 9 am to 12 noon

Mentors:

Location: Mentor's or Student's shop

Content: Follows FineWoodworking.com video "Getting Started in Woodworking" Season 1, session 9, "Milling Lumber"

Description:

Using stationary power tools to mill lumber

Cutting boards to reduce warpage on a bandsaw;
Flattening one face by planing on a jointer;
Milling second face parallel on a thickness planer;
Edging (90 deg to face) a constant thickness board on a jointer;
Ripping boards to width on a table saw;
Crosscutting boards on a table saw.

Student Preparation:

1. Register with Bob Mills at 248-535-6718 or 248-540-8658
2. View the "Getting Started in Woodworking" videos, Season 2, sessions 9 & 10. At <http://www.startwoodworking.com/getting-started/season-two>
3. Download and read the article "An Oil and Wax Finish" by Charles Shackleton at <http://www.finewoodworking.com/fwnpdf/011175054.pdf> .